

33rd International Conference

Geneva, 9-12 December 2019

Power of humanity
RED CROSS RED CRESCENT STATUTORY MEETINGS

The 33rd International Conference: Act today, shape tomorrow

01

Identify emerging challenges

02

Raise awareness

03

Explore actions and solutions

Key themes

Respecting and implementing IHL

Follow-up of the 32nd International Conference

The technological revolution:
opportunities
and threats

33rd International Conference
Act today, shape tomorrow

Trust in humanitarian action

Tomorrow's humanitarian response

Technological revolution: opportunities and threats

New weapons, means and methods of warfare

Data access and protection

Bridging the digital divide

Integrating technology in humanitarian response

Tomorrow's humanitarian response

Working together to improve global health care

Humanitarian consequences of climate change

Tackling urban vulnerabilities

Trust in humanitarian action

Fostering integrity and accountability

Challenges to delivering neutral, independent and impartial humanitarian action

Respecting and implementing IHL

The International Conference will continue important work on strengthening respect for IHL.

The Conference will be invited to consider a four-year action plan on national implementation of existing IHL obligations and a report on contemporary challenges to IHL.

Follow up from the 32nd International Conference

Previous Conference resolutions to be followed up include:

Res. 5 'Safety and Security of Humanitarian Volunteers'

Res. 3 'Sexual and Gender-based Violence'

Res. 8 'Implementation of the MoU and Agreement on Operational Arrangements between PRCs and MDA'

We need your feedback

12 October 2018

Does the current framing of the 33rd International Conference reflect the critical issues and conversations that need to be held?

Do the topics proposed reflect the most pressing current and future humanitarian concerns?

What are the specific discussions and angles on these topics that the Conference should address?

conferences@rcrcconference.org
www.rcrcconference.org