

Monday, 9 December	Tuesday, 10 December	Wednesday, 11 December	Thursday, 12 December
	07:30 – 8:30	07:30 – 8:30	07:30 – 08:30
		IHL committee: a success	Media and armed conflicts
		Persons with disabilities in humanitarian action: advantages of local partnership
		Combating trafficking in persons in the context of armed conflict
15:00 – 16:00	13:30 – 14:30	13:00 - 14:00	13:00 – 14:00
Protection together: a comprehensive Movement approach	New technologies to prevent and search missing persons: transformation of the CTA		Promouvoir une migration sûre et régulière
Mass casualty incidents: community capacity	Military manuals in the 21 st century	Humanitarian cash: giving dignity to people in crisis	Launching the first RCRC Research Consortium RC3
Civil-military relations between National Societies and military bodies	Protecting healthcare: translating normative frameworks into practical solutions	Reimagining volunteering	Investing in National Society development
Encouraging national emblem legislation & protection	Humanitarian consequences of nuclear weapons	High Level Climate Science-Humanitarian Dialogue: scaling-up collaborative action toward climate resilience and addressing the humanitarian impacts of climate	Non-State armed groups and IHL: some reflections on Their practices and interpretation
Increasing resilience to weapon contamination through behaviour change	Localisation in action	Making the most of National Societies' contributions to sustainable development – opportunities and challenges	Regulation, ethics and accountability in data partnerships for humanitarian Aid
	Predictable financing in changing climate (13:00-14:00)		GLOW Red: Making women's leadership a reality
	18:30 – 19:30	19:30 - 20:30
	Protection of Water in Armed Conflict	Help the helpers
	Families belong together	IHL – A long conversation
	Role of regional mechanisms-IHL	Stepping up our joint efforts to end sexual and gender-based violence
	What does it take to be "climate-smart"?	Protecting civilians in urban warfare
	Good offices and respect for IHL
	RCRC Approach to Education	Locally led disaster management: The Pacific way	