

The 33rd International Conference

What are the main outcomes?

Power of humanity

33rd International Conference of the Red Cross and Red Crescent 9-12 December 2019, Geneva

Proposed "thematic" resolutions¹:

Bringing IHL home: A road map for better national implementation of international humanitarian law

Climate-smart disaster laws and policies that leave no one behind

Restoring family links while respecting the right to privacy, including as it relates to personal data protection

Addressing mental health and psychosocial needs of people affected by armed conflicts, natural disasters and other emergencies

Time to act: tackling epidemics and pandemics together

Women and leadership in the humanitarian action of the International Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement

Proposed "follow up" resolutions:

- ▶ Power of Humanity
- ▶ Implementation of the MoU between the Palestine Red Crescent Society and Magen David Adom in Israel

Resolutions

are formal decision, recommendations or declarations taken by the participants at the International Conference.

Pledges

are concrete, measurable and action-oriented voluntary commitments. They foster dialogue and cooperation among participants.

Other outcomes include new and strengthened partnerships, increased knowledge of various humanitarian issues and a greater sense of unity and empowerment.

Progress Reports

describe how the resolutions and pledges are implemented, contributing to better accountability.

¹ This list of proposed resolutions is subject to change until the end of the Conference.
