1. Candidate motivation

The driving force behind my decision is deeply rooted in my dedication to protecting vulnerable people and promoting the leading role of the Movement in the humanitarian field. This commitment is not just a personal value, but a profound responsibility that I believe is essential in today's world. It extends beyond mere words - it is a call to action that I am eager to fulfil through my candidacy.

Today, changes of the world, of our times, and of historical significance are unfolding like never before. At this moment, the spirit of the Movement plays a pivotal role in protecting human lives and dignity and promoting world peace. My medical background has instilled in me a deep sense of compassion and a commitment to saving lives and the well-being of humanity. Over two decades, I have held managerial positions in the Red Cross Society of China, including the Secretary General and the Vice President. Having steered a National Society serving over 1.4 billion people, my humanitarian journey was marked by leading emergency response, institutional development, and humanitarian diplomacy. In particular, I have led the National Society's response to large-scale emergencies nationwide and reinforced sound communications with government authorities, international organizations, academia, and the corporate sector for a stronger National Society and a greater Movement.

As the trustee of the International Conference, the Standing Commission has been a pillar in ensuring the collective influence of the Movement. Taking advantage of my extensive experience and deep understanding of the Movement's mission and principles, I am willing to contribute to building the Standing Commission in fulfilling its mandates, especially in the following aspects:

- Reinforce the solidarity, integrity, and coordination. In a much-fractured world, the need for solidarity is more critical than ever. To achieve synergistic development and effective implementation of the Seville Agreement 2.0, I would like to dedicate myself to making diverse voices of National Societies heard, so as to deliver tangible support to address challenges and bring the resolutions to fruition.

- Advocate for effective reform. With my experience in driving the digital transformation of a National Society covering a vast population, I am motivated to apply the successful experience to the global humanitarian field, aiming to create a shared and inclusive platform with more constructive ideas.

- Boost recognition and prominence. To maximize the Standing Commission's potential, I am willing to take comprehensive communications and enhance mutual trust with more States and National Societies, enabling the Standing Commission's visibility and relevance to be consistently recognized and appreciated.

Drawing upon my background in both policy formulation and operational execution, I look forward to contributing my experience and knowledge to the Standing Commission. With the joint efforts of the Stand Commission and all components of the Movement, we can build a more peaceful and harmonious world where the most vulnerable are protected, human dignity is respected, and the values of humanity are upheld and celebrated.
